

Spiritual Lessons from the Creation Account

- The world is a gift to us from a gracious God
- The constants in this world are in place for our benefit
- Man and woman are equal before God
- We are created in God's image and enjoy a special bond with God
- God wants to protect us from suffering and death
- We can misuse the gift of freedom and ignore God's protective word
- The way to the tree of life remains accessible to us
- Our failures do not distance God from us
- The word of God is given for our benefit
- Light prevails over darkness
- We are stewards of creation
